PRAYERS FOR THE GROWTH OF OUR PARISH

Fr. Jason has requested that during the month of August we each pray for the growth of our parish when we wake in the morning and before we to sleep at night. We will all be helping our parish by adding this intention to our morning and evening prayers.

LITURGY INTENTIONS

If you wish to have a Liturgy said for your loved ones, please submit your intentions to Mary Ann Mysliwec. If you would like a specific date for the intention make sure you submit it at least three to four weeks before. The liturgies are assigned but changes can be made if enough notice is given. Also, when paying by check please make it out to Our Lady of Perpetual Help or OLPH.

BIBLICAL HUMOR

One day an angel appeared to Adam. The angel said, “Adam, I’ve got great news. God is going to create something wonderful for you.” Adam said, “Oh, what is it?”

The angel said, “It’s not an “it,” it’s a “she.” God is going to make something called a woman.” Adam said, “Go on.”

The angel continued, “This is going to be wonderful. This woman will be made to be a lot like you physically, only much more beautiful. She will live to serve you at all times. When you are tired, she’ll give you a massage. When you are hungry, she’ll feed you. She’ll come and bow down to you in the morning and when you return from working in the garden in the evening. She’ll live to serve your every pleasure each day.”

“In addition,” the angel continued, “she will never argue with you or complain. She won’t nag you or talk back to you either. For every command you give her, she’ll simply reply, “yes master.” She’ll clean your house, and tend to your every desire.”

Adam had a sparkle in his eye and said with excitement, “Wow, that sounds amazing. I’d really like to have something like that. But what’s it going to cost me?” The angel said, “Well Adam, it’s going to cost you your right arm, and a leg.”

Adam thought about it for a while, and then replied, “What can I get for just a rib?”

I hope you enjoyed this funny biblical joke. Laughter is the best medicine, and hopefully I just added years onto your life by giving you some laughter. Just always remember to place God first, and follow His will in all things.

God bless.

JESUS IS ALIVE IN OUR CHURCH

Jesus is alive, and he is building his church (Matt. 16:18).

Jesus' church is built upon his life, death, burial, and resurrection. It is through the proclamation of this message—the gospel—that the church will either visibly rise or fall.

The gospel is of first importance for the church (1 Cor. 15:1–11). The Church may have a variety of differences, but there's one common denominator between them all: We are justified by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone.

The gospel renews people who are burdened with sin and discouraged by the struggles of life. The gospel offers hope for those who have succumbed to the darkness of despair and helplessness.

And the gospel performs the greatest miracle of all:

It introduces people to Jesus who will transform them into new creations in him.

Jesus is inviting you to participate in his work.

One of the most significant ways we are called to participate in God's work today is to pray for the Church.

We are to...

Pray for the Church.

Pray for our church family.

Pray for the body of Christ in our community and around the world.

Jesus' church has stood the test of time. It cannot be stopped by force, political pressure, or even political correctness. It has weathered tumultuous years and lived through multiple heretical diseases.

Jesus will continue to build his church until he returns in glory to redeem his bride, and absolutely nothing or no one can stand in his way.

As you read this post, we encourage you to join us in prayer for the Church.

If you can, take a moment to put down your phone and take a break from whatever you're doing to pray through these prayer points for your church, churches in your community, and churches around the world.
