Excerpt from Christ Our Pascha – Catechism of the Ukrainian Catholic Church

The Protoevangelium

Immediately after their fall, God announces to Adam and Eve his promise of salvation. Inasmuch as the human race was deceived by the tempter by trusting in him, God sets enmity, a struggle between them, to safeguard humanity from total subordination to evil: “I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers: (Gn 3:15). In this struggle, God promises humanity the ultimate victory: “He [i.e., the offspring of the woman] will strike your [i.e., the serpent’s head” (Gn 3:15). In the contest between good and evil, in the end, good shall overcome, as personified by the offspring of the woman. The assurance of this victory emerges not from human efforts, but from the very Word of God, given in the promise. This first proclamation of the Good News about the salvation of the human race is what the Church calls the Protoevangelium. (# 160)

Suggestion for St. Philip’s Fast

Here is a suggestion from the OUTREACH COMMITTEE of our parish, to not only do the fast but to also shift the focus from ourselves and think about helping others. We challenge you to each day add an item to give to the less fortunate of our Wheeling Community. We will have a box or boxes in the church hall where you can put donations which will be given to the needy and homeless.
