GOD CALLING
FLING IT AT MY FEET

To see Me you must bring Me your cares and show Me your heart of Trust. Then, as you leave your cares, you become conscious of My Presence.

This consciousness persisted and brings its reward of Me. Through a mist of care no man may see My Face. Only when the burden is flung at My Feet do you pass on to consciousness and spiritual sight.

Remember obedience, obedience, obedience – the straight and narrow way into the Kingdom.

Not of you must it be said, even in lovingly render reproach – “Why do you call Me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not the things which I say?”

Character is chiseled into Beauty by the daily discipline and daily duties done. For, in many ways, My disciples must work out their own salvation, though this is not possible without My Strength and Help, and without conversing with Me.

Even for the Spiritual Life the training is different for different spirits. The man who would fain living a life of prayer and meditation is thrust into the busy ways of life, and the busy man is bidden to rest and wait patiently for Me. O joy, O rest, and in the busy ways be ever at peace.
