HOW TO PRAY

God is your loving Father in Heaven, and He wants to hear from you. You can reach out to Him. As His child, you can ask your Heavenly Father for help and guidance in your life.

PRAYING FOR SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

There are times that call for extra prayers – like a prayer for healing, for protection, or for urgent needs. Fasting (purposefully going without food or drink for a period of time) combined with prayer helps show God your sincerity and provides spiritual strength.

GETTING ANSWERS TO OUR PRAYERS

God promises that when we turn to Him in prayer, He will give us answers and guidance.

“Ask, and it shall be given you, and you shall find; knock, and It shall be opened unto you.” -- Matthew 7:7

God communicates with us through the Holy Spirit in the form of good thoughts and ideas or peaceful, comforting feelings. When we feel those things, it means God is encouraging us, showing us truth, and giving us directions.

Everyone will feel the Holy Spirit in their own way. In the Bible, it's often described as a "still small voice" (1 Kings 19:11-12) that almost seems to whisper to your mind.

Often, God answers our prayers through others. God can put people into our lives at the right time who can give or be the answer we have been looking for. We can also get answers to prayers by reading what His prophets have taught in the Bible. When we pray and read the Bible, the Holy Spirit can give us personalized ideas and directions. Taking time to study His word is also a way we can show God that we truly desire an answer from Him.

This concludes the series on How to Pray. I hope it helped you with your prayer life.
