Also, please let us know if you would like to have it said on a special date. Remember to try to give at least a 4 weeks notice as the Liturgy intentions are scheduled by the month.

A SPIRITUAL PILGRIMAGE SIX DEFINING SPIRITUAL MOMENTS

LESSON

The spiritual life is chief among serious endeavors. Something that is serious is demanding and requires consideration and earnest application. Our need for depth and seriousness is best met with a rich inner life. The six lessons about to be described will hopefully have a seismic impact on your inner and outer life. The definition of seismic is “of enormous proportions or effect.

1. Just Begin the Conversation: This is the first seismic event in the spiritual life. Prayer is a conversation. Once the conversation has begun, it can lead anywhere. Most important it will lead to the places it needs to lead to. This is true with your friends and colleagues, your brothers and sisters, your spouse and children., and of course with God.

2. Ask God What He Wants: The second seismic event occurs within the conversation when we stop asking God for what we want and start asking what He wants. When we stop asking God for things, for favors, and for our will to be done, we begin to open ourselves to much more than His will. We open ourselves to His wisdom.

3. Give Yourself To Prayer: Giving yourself to prayer means showing up and letting God do what He wants to do with you during that time of prayer. It means letting go of expectations and agendas for our time with God. It means the detachment from the feelings that prayer provokes within us.

4. Transform Everything Into Prayer: Learning to transform daily activities into prayer is one of the greatest spiritual lessons of life. Offer the next hour of your life for a friend who is sick. Offer the task you are least looking forward to doing to God as a prayer for a person you know who is suffering and do the task with great love. Offer each task, one at a time, to God.

5. Make Yourself Available.: This fifth spiritual moment is about making yourself 100% available to God. Consecration is ultimately about making ourselves available to God. Prayer is about making ourselves available to God.

6. Just Keep Showing Up: No matter what, just keep showing up to prayer. Keep showing up to Liturgy. Keep showing up for your spiritual routines and rituals.

VIRTUE OF THE DAY

Surrender: The virtue of surrender leads to tranquility. If you find yourself wrestling with every situation or doing battle with every person, it's time to explore why you are so insistent on imposing your will on every person and situation. The secret to surrendering to God is knowing your responsibilities and being clear about His responsibilities. Our willingness to surrender says a lot about our understanding of God.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. Every day I long for more of You. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot receive You sacramentally at this moment, I invite You to come and dwell in my heart. May this spiritual communion increase my desire for the Eucharist. You are the healer of my soul. The blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart. Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do Your will in all things. My Lord and my God, draw me close to You, nearer than ever before. AMEN.

PRAY FOR THE SICK AND SHUT-INS

Lord God, through the prayers of Mary, Our Mother, bring your healing presence to all who are sick, injured, or troubled. Amen
