A SPIRITUAL PILGRIMAGE HEALER OF MY SOUL

Who do you know who needs what this woman needed?

“There was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years and though she had spent all she had on physicians no one could cure her. She came up behind Jesus and touched the fringe of his clothes, and immediately her hemorrhage stopped. Then Jesus asked, ‘Who touched me?’ When all denied it, Peter said, ‘Master the crowds surround you and press in on you.’ But Jesus said, ‘Someone touched me for I noticed that power had gone from me.’ When the woman saw that she could not remain hidden she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him and how she had been immediately healed. He said to her ‘Daughter your faith has made you well go in peace.’”

Lesson: We are blind. We are paralyzed. We are deaf. We are possessed. Ask Jesus in the Eucharist to heal you.

Virtue of the Day: Trust: The virtue of trust is in many ways an acknowledgment of the reality that God is in control. It is also a belief that God has a plan for our lives and will provide for us in that plan. One of the most practical ways to grow in the virtue of trust is to become more trustworthy. Trust determines how we participate in relationships. Who we trust reveals our character. The gift of trust is a tranquil soul.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. Every day I long for more of You. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot receive You sacramentally at this moment, I invite You to come and dwell in my heart. May this spiritual communion increase my desire for the Eucharist. You are the healer of my soul. The blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart. Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do Your will in all things. My Lord and my God, draw me close to You, nearer than ever before. AMEN.
