2025 LENTEN FISH FRY

Following the Divine Liturgy on Saturday, February 1 we will have a meeting to discuss and plan for the 2025 Lenten Fish Fries. We ask that everyone be there. We were voted the Best Church Fish Fry in the Wheeling Area last year, so we need to look and plan our strategies and prices so we can keep this title.

A SPIRITUAL PILGRIMAGE THE FRUITS OF THE EUCHARIST

Sometimes we need to know how something will benefit us. And that's okay. So let's talk about some more of the benefits of the Eucharist.

When was the last time you did something that you knew wasn't good for you? Why did you do it? Think of reasons, come up with excuses, but at the end of the day it comes down to this: You have disordered desires that are difficult to control. The grace of the Eucharist can help you with that.

There's an agonizing and relatable moment in Saint Paul's letter to the Romans where he says, "I do not understand my own actions. For I do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do...I can will what is right, but I cannot do it." (Romans 7:15,19)

Have you ever felt that struggle? You are standing at the moment of decision. You know what is good and right. You know it will ultimately make you happier. You know it's better for you. And yet, you find yourself doing what is bad anyway. This can be incredibly frustrating, and the grace of the Eucharist can help with this too.

Lesson: We all experience a struggle between what we want to do and what we are called to do. We all have disordered desires that need to be controlled. The grace and gifts of the Eucharist allow us to navigate those struggles. Which fruit of the Eucharist do need right now in your life? Next time you receive the Eucharist, ask Jesus to flood your soul with that particular gift.

Virtue of the Day: Receptivity: The virtue of receptivity involves opening our hearts, minds, bodies, and souls completely to God and allowing Him to work unimpeded on our souls and in our lives.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. Every day I long for more of You. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot receive You sacramentally at this moment, I invite You to come and dwell in my heart. May this spiritual communion increase my desire for the Eucharist. You are the healer of my soul. The the blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart. Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do Your will in all things. My Lord and my God, draw me close to You, nearer than ever before. AMEN.
